COMPETITION RULES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik

President

European Judo Union

Dear Judo Friends,

It is with great pleasure and gratefulness that we welcome the European Championships back in France, this time hosting the EJU's most important and anticipated event of every year in a sunny Mediterranean city of Montpellier.

The year 2014 is marked with the 50th anniversary of Olympic judo as well as with the beginning of Olympic qualification for Rio 2016. And I am glad that together with the strongest judo federation we would remember the participants of first Olympics in 1964 such as Lionel Grossain, the European Champion of the same year, and that we could cherish the first hours champions such as Jean de Herdt, Henri Courtine and certainly Jean-Luc Rougé, a four times European Champion, a long-term leader of French Judo Federation, the General Secretary of the IJF.

I trust that thirteen years after Paris hosted the individual European Championships, the French Judo Federation together with the enthusiastic federation of Montpellier would deliver the best event at a new spectacular level and I am looking forward to witness a scintillating judo in a beautiful venue full of supportive fans and judo lovers.

I would like to wish good luck to all participating athletes qualified for this top event. They are the frontrunners of European judo, and may these championships become a stepping stone for them to world gold in Chelyabinsk as well as to a successful qualification for the forthcoming Olympic Games.

May the organisers, judoka and fans team up in Montpellier to create and enjoy a warm atmosphere of family judo and to co-author judo history.

Jean-Luc Rouge

President

French Judo Federation

Welcome to the Europe of Judo!

It is with great pleasure that the French Judo Federation welcomes you for the 2014 European Championships in Montpellier.

Since 1951, this will be the ninth edition of the European Judo elite held in France, the first time was in Paris. We have come quite a long way since then and we would like to thank President Sergey Soloveychik for his trust as well as his commitment for the development of Judo within the European Judo Union.

Welcoming country for European Judo, France already organized in 2013 great events such as Veterans European Championships and European Championships for Clubs.

Through this great event, we shall highlight everyday work of our regional league and committees especially education and integration initiatives. A research symposium will be as well organized.

There is no doubt that Montpellier, big sport city and Languedoc Roussillon region will reserve a warm and friendly welcome for you. The south of France, lovely region to discover, steeped in history and focused on the future will organize an efficient competition in the best possible conditions.

We wish to extend thanks to Mr. Christian Detranchant, who is the Languedoc Roussillon Judo league President, and his team for their hard work and involvement in making this championship a success.

We welcome all European delegations; we want to make judo the first winner of this event through an efficient and wonderful show/event/competition.
