Conditions of participation:

1. For the Sessions 1 to 6, the Participants will wear only white judogi, for the Session 7 (Education and Sport) the dress code is casual.
2. IJF is covering the costs for one referee and one coach from each National Federation in double room and full board. Totally are three nights, starting on SUN 13.01.2019.
3. The transportation (by air, train or car) and other costs are on charge of the Participants.
4. The Organizer will assure the transfer, the arrival to be confirmed over up-mentioned addresses.
5. Each participant must be registered in the IJF JUDOBASE. This could be done only by the National Federation. If they are not registered, the IJF support will not apply.
6. Participation fee include transfer from airport or train station, three-night accommodation with breakfast, lunch and dinner.
7. Transport from München Airport will be charged supplementary, as up-mentioned.
8. There are two categories of prices, corresponding to:
 - a single room EUR 490 / person
 - a double room EUR 390 / person
9. Deadline for registration in JUDOBASE and for accommodation is 11.12.2018.
10. Every National Federation can send a maximum of three (3) referees and two (3) coaches, this including the supported ones by the IJF. If the maximal capacity is not reached, additional delegates will be processed by date of inscription.
11. Each National Federation is directly responsible for its representatives. It must assume all responsibility for accident and health insurance as well as civil liabilities during the IJF Refereeing and Coaching Seminar 2019, for everyone under their charge.

NOTE:

All the referees from the Ranking list must attend the 2019 IJF Refereeing and Coaching Seminar.

Consequently, they are in charge of clarifying and sharing the information and rules acknowledged there for the referees and coaches from their own country.

In the light of this, in the upcoming period, after Mittersill, the National Federations will conduct their own seminars with the technical assistance and support of the representatives who were present at the IJF Seminar.
